Judaic Tradition

O my God, Creator of the universe, you give to me an impossible task, to love you with the totality of my being.

You desire that I love you with a fullness of my heart, with every ounce of my soul's power and with all the strength of my body and mind.

I know that with and through you all things are possible and so I strive this day to fulfill the great command that you gave to your beloved Moses.

Today I shall, to the best of my ability, try to make my love for you so encompassing that it shall absorb me body and soul.
Look with compassion, Ever-merciful One, upon my times of amnesia when I stumble in my striving and give priority to things other than you.

And enlighten me each morning to the sacred knowledge that in loving others as myself, in loving this world and all you have made,
I am loving you.
Make me this day, I pray, a passionate lover of you and of all that is full of your glory
